Release and Waiver of Liability Ecumenical Response Effort

In consideration of the opportunity to participate in the ECUMENICAL RESPONSE EFFORT, I, my heirs, and successors hereby do release, and hold harmless the licensed transportation companies, the Presbyteries, Synods, Conferences, Denominations, congregations, their employees, officers, agents or representatives, members or program leaders, individually or collectively, from any and all claims of any nature, while traveling to, participating in or returning from participation in any, and all activities associated with the ECUMENICAL RESPONSE EFFORT programs, training events, planning events, or discussions.

I fully understand the following and assume the risks:

- ◆ I am not to accept any form of reimbursement for my labors
- ◆ Smoking is not permitted on board buses, planes or leased vehicles
- ◆ I shall travel to and live in a disaster area or an area considered 'undeveloped'
- ◆ I know that traveling is dangerous. I may be involved in a transportation incident or other accident
- ◆ I know that disaster areas are dangerous places in which to live and work, even after the disaster has passed
- ◆ I may have to work in hot, humid weather, which will drain me of physical strength
- ◆ I may be subject to monsoon rains, hurricanes or other difficult weather
- ◆ I know that every effort has been made to ensure my safety, provide potable drinking water and safe food to eat.
- ◆ Structures may fall on me or collapse beneath me.
- ◆ I may have to work with dangerous tools or in dangerous places
- ◆ My personal property may be damaged or stolen
- ◆ I shall not sue the above listed entities should anything happen
- ◆ I intend this to be a legally binding agreement.

If I must cancel the trip, $300.00 of my deposit is non-refundable. Should the program leaders of the Ecumenical Response Effort program cancel the trip, all deposits will be returned to me.

RELIEF, RECOVERY, RECONSTRUCTION

An alliance of Christian denominations (Assembly of God in Jesus Christ-Haitian, Baptist, Christian Outreach, Churches of God, Episcopal, Lutheran, Methodist, and Presbyterian) has been created to sponsor relief and recovery efforts in Haiti.

The following is a schedule of medical, housing, community development and agricultural efforts to be pursued. We will work in earthquake devastated areas and in remote villages where former residents of larger cities found refuge with family and friends.

Each trip will cost $1,000 per volunteer. The cost includes:

- Transportation from/to Harrisburg to the departure airport
- Airfare from the departure airport to Port-au-Prince
- Transportation from the airport to the host housing and return
- Lodging and meals at the host location
- Materials and supplies needed for the work to which assigned

Date	Location in Haiti	Work to be done	Maximum number of volunteers
June 19–25	Jacmal	Community development/Educational	Filled
July 20–28	Faugasse (Les Cayes)	Finish construction of medical clinic Community develop./agriculture	5 spaces avail.
Aug. 21–27	Pierre Payen	Medical team—Surgical/Orthopedic	10
